

Empowered Passion: Stand Up & Be Counted

August 23—September 30, 2009 | EAST LIBRARY
5550 N. Union Blvd

An exhibit recognizing Colorado Springs residents whose visions and actions have made a difference in the development of this great city from 1871 to 2009.

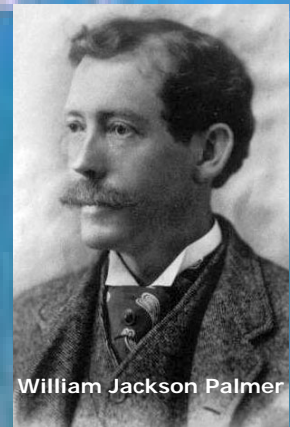

Myron Stratton

Charles Learning Tutt

Spencer Penrose

William Jackson Palmer

Presented by

PIKES PEAK LIBRARY DISTRICT

SEEK • ENGAGE • TRANSFORM

THE GREENBERG CENTER FOR LEARNING AND TOLERANCE
AND
PIKES PEAK LIBRARY DISTRICT

PROUDLY PRESENT

Empowered Passion: Stand Up & Be Counted

August 23—September 30, 2009

OPENING RECEPTION

SUNDAY, AUGUST 30, 2009

1:00 PM—5:00 PM

East Library

PROGRAM AT 1:30 PM

MUSICAL PRESENTATION BY THE CHILDREN'S CHORALE

GUEST SPEAKER

DAVID CSINTYAN

President & Chief Executive Officer

The Greater Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce

Reception to follow

FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Students and Groups Welcome

This 6 week exhibit features video of citizens past and present, interactive computer research, historical information and so much more!

PPLD
PO Box 1579
Colorado Springs, CO 80901-1579

NONPROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
COLO. SPRINGS, CO
PERMIT NO. 839

The Greenberg Center for Learning and Tolerance promotes learning, understanding, and acceptance that honors the cultural dignity of all humanity.